Cross-country touring is fast becoming popular among the fairer sex. In the past few weeks many parties, made up exclusively of women, have passed through the city. One of the latest through the city. One of the latest and one of the most difficult trips in the section is that undertaken by Mrs. R. C. Williams, Miss Fredie Williams and Mrs. S. G. Maxwell, of Clarksdale, who were en route to Chattanooga. The party registered at the Hotel Gayoso Wednesday after completing the first lap of the trip. Reports of bad roads did not deter them from making the trial for Chattanooga and they expect to arrive there Friday.

Atmosphere

HE disregard for beauty in furniture destroys that intimate quality which constistroys that intimate quanty tutes "home." On the other hand, beautiful furniture creates that atmosphere of "Hominess"-that something which makes a home more than merely a place to live in. No one wants a commonplace home. That's why we are so particular in choosing furniture that is distinctively beautiful and attractive—the kind that creates that homey atmosphere and identifies a home with good taste and refinement.
